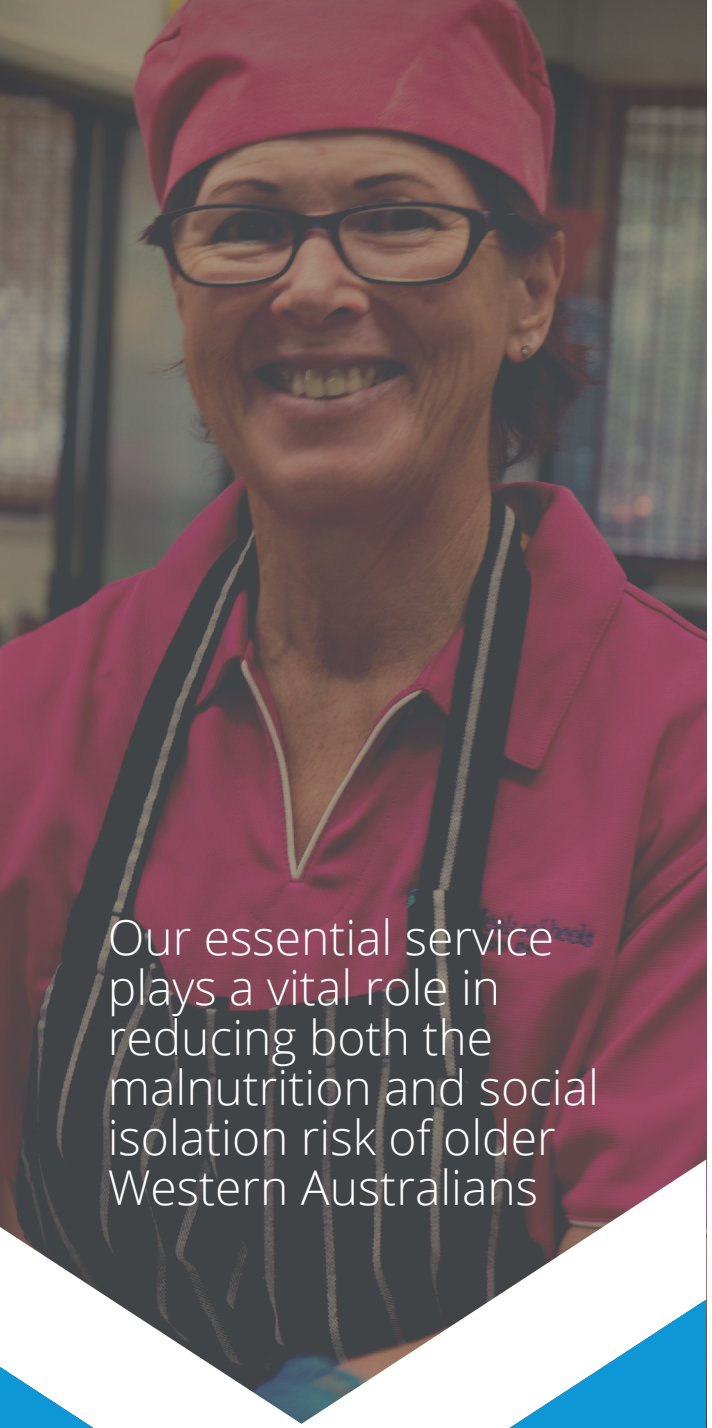
Supporting nourished, independent and connected Western Australian communities for over 60 years

Meals on Wheels
Western Australia



Our essential service plays a vital role in reducing both the malnutrition and social isolation risk of older Western Australians

About Meals on Wheels WA

For over 60 years, Meals on Wheels has been supporting vulnerable members of the Western Australian community to remain living independently and well, in their own homes.

We do this through the delivery of nutritious, delicious meals, made to our National Meal Guidelines, specifically designed to support the wellbeing and nutritional needs of older Australians.

Our friendly volunteers also perform a social and wellbeing check, providing peace of mind to loved ones and ensuring the safety and social connection of our customers.

Meals on Wheels WA was previously represented by Aged and Community Services WA (ACSWA), before incorporating in 2019.

We exist to provide advocacy and support for Meals on Wheels branded and other meals delivery service providers, operating within the state of Western Australia.

This also involves representing the interests of these providers and offering access to national trademark licences, support and resources through the membership of Meals on Wheels Australia (Australian Meals on Wheels Association Inc.).

By becoming a member of Meals on Wheels WA, you can access a range of benefits and become a part of our incredible community that makes a real difference to the lives of fellow Western Australians, every day.
